

Seminar: Historians in the public sphere

The sessions will be held online on Thursdays at 15:00-16:00 (GMT)

Conveners: Dr. Martin Robert (University of Oxford) and Evan Bonney (SciencesPo Paris)

Registration required. Please email martin.robert@wolfson.ox.ac.uk to register.

- Week 1
21 January                      Representing current events: reflections from a historian
Robert Lacey (Historian and author)
- Week 2
28 January                      Tracing the future of research: managing a public funding body
Professor Andrew Thompson (University of Oxford)
- Week 3
04 February                    Public history in China: history, memory, and politics
Professor Na Li (Zhejiang University)
- Week 4
11 February                    Historians and gaming: consulting for video and board games
Daniel Burt (University of Oxford)
Perrine Poiron (Sorbonne Université and UQAM)
- Week 5
18 February                    Medical museums: handling specimens from the past
Professor Richard Fraser (McGill University)
Éloïse Quételet (Sorbonne Université)
Professor Paul Weindling (Oxford Brookes University)
- Week 6
25 February                    Connected historians: YouTube and new media
Ugo Bimar ('Confessions d'histoire' channel)
Matus Lazar (University of Oxford and 'M. Laser History' channel)
- Week 7
04 March                        Appreciating and preserving: archives and special collections
Dr. Mary Hague-Yearl (McGill University)
Dr. Florent Palluault (Médiathèque François-Mitterrand, Poitiers)
- Week 8
11 March                        Local historians and the historical profession
Mark Davies (Oxford local historian, author)
Liz Woolley (Oxford local historian, author)

With the kind support of

